

Lyrics: Jonas Felix Erne

I look outside everything I see
looks so surreal to me

hoping that
sparrows will fly again
by my Windowpane

now worries fill my head you're absence drives me mad

but

we'll meet again
we'll meet again
sometime soon
we'll meet again
I know

we'll meet again
we'll meet again
sometime soon
we'll meet again
I know

while I am here
realize what was there
when I was anywhere

I believe that my loneliness can end
by signs with boxes send

now worries fill my Head
my Isolation turns me sad

but

we'll meet again
we'll meet again
sometime soon
we'll meet again
I know

and we'll be fine

together
and we'll be fine
I know... when we'll

we'll meet again
we'll meet again
sometime soon
we'll meet again
I know

we'll meet
again Sometime soon
we'll meet
again
I know
